

Columbus Dispatch, The (OH)

August 28, 2008

Jim Kelley
Andy McCullough

The Columbus Dispatch

Q How often do you eat out?

A I'd say I eat about between 20 and 25 times a month.

Q Where was the last place you went?

A Handke's Cuisine (520 S. Front St.).

Q What do you usually get there?

A Let's see: What did I have that night? Oh! We had the duet of veal.

Q What do you like about the place?

A It's just a very nice place. The food is excellent.

Q So what's your favorite restaurant in town?

A G. Michael's Bistro (595 S. 3rd St.).

Q What do you usually get there?

A Probably one of the specials of the day.

Q What kind of specials does the restaurant offer?

A All kinds. Their sauteed sea scallops are to die for. Their steak's very good; the seafood is very good.

Q How often do you go there?

A I would say four or five times a year. That's primarily because they only do dinner and I do lunch out more than I do dinner.

Q What's the atmosphere like?

A It's a very eclectic atmosphere.

Q What if you had only $10 to spend for dinner?

A Ten dollars for dinner? I'd go to Cuco's (Mexican Taqueria and Grill, 2162 Henderson Rd.).

Q What would you get?

A A burrito, which comes with rice, and a guacamole salad.

Q And what if you had no price limit?

A No price limit? Probably the Refectory (1092 Bethel Rd.).

tmikesel@dispatch.com

THE COLUMBUS DISPATCH Copyright (c) 2008 The Dispatch Printing Co.